- 12:30 Lunch

Part 2. Forest Management and Selective Logging

Wednesday July 18, Afternoon

- 14:00 507. Regeneration of an endangered timber tree species after harvesting in southeast Mexico
Lopez-Toledo Leonel, Martinez-Morales Mariana, Burslem David and Martinez-Ramos Miguel llopez@oikos.unam.mx
- 14:20 544. Changes in forest structure and diversity in polewood forests of Quintana Roo, Mexico
Racelis Alexis

aracelis@ucsc.edu

14:40 237. Trade-offs among timber production, fire susceptibility, and carbon sequestration in Bolivian semi-evergreen moist forests

Blate Geoffrey Blate
geoffblate@yahoo.com

15:00 Coffee break

15:20 55. Tree Species Richness and Composition 15 years after Strip Clear-Cutting

Rondon Xanic J., Gorchov David L. and Cornejo Fernando rondonxj@muohio.edu

15:40 3. Effects of a historical fire event on the tree diversity of an Amazon lowland rainforest

Horchler Peter J. horchler@bafg.de

16:00 620. Phylogeography of Brazil-nut tree (Bertholletia excelsa, Lecythidaceae): evidence of human influence on the species distribution.
